

Coffee Trail

Interested in looking at a river, a natural spring and a coffee field? In between the coffee trees are many other shade trees, like cocoa, oranges, avocados, grapefruits etc. You can even spot monkeys or sloths.

Facts
Distance: 1,7 km
Duration: 45 minutes
Elevation: 60 meter
Trail difficulty: medium
Signs on trail: yes, red signs

1. Facing the reception go right, walking towards the "Beneficio".
2. You will find a small path going downhill towards the river behind the Beneficio.
3. Follow the red signs and cross the river. Go up again on the other side. When you reach the coffee field, keep left. Then go right up a small slope.
4. As soon as you get to a Y-junction, with a tree with a red arrow in the middle, go right.
5. Follow the red signs and turn left on a bigger path. Almost at the end of the path, go left.
6. Reaching an arrow on a rock, follow red signs to the right while passing the yellow bamboo on the left.
7. After a short while you will have reached the Pozo Azul. It is a fresh water spring and provides drinking water for the houses there.
8. Cross the creak over the wooden bridge and go through the gate following the red signs throughout the private property.
9. Walk towards the house, keep left and cross the creak again before reaching a second house. Go around this house and follow the path down through the fields.
10. Continue on the path, pass a small waterfall (only in rainy season) and cross the river again.
11. Now you go uphill towards the main house, passing it on the right side and coming back to the roundabout.