1. Starting from the roundabout follow the road to Valeria's shop. Turn right, follow the street downhill, and cross the river.
2. 500 meters after the river, you will find a road junction with a big sign 'Reserva Natural Cerro Cumaica Cerro Alegre' with an arrow pointing in the direction you are coming from. Here, go left, uphill.
3. After 10 minutes there is a Y-junction with a pink sign. Go left following the main road.
4. Now you simply follow the dirt road all the way up. Passing houses, viewpoints, and a small lake. Shortly before the finca you will have to cross a barbed wire gate.
5. Once you arrive at the finca, you can cross some bean fields on the right side behind the house and reach another viewpoint.
6. After taking a break you can explore the coffee fields around and then go back the same way you came.
